

SEVERAL TIMES

Through the rain
through the storm clouds
I searched my way
into pain, into sorrows
until this day....
We've just turned back in time
by finding some fragile lines

And reasoning
will lead to nowhere
as long as we feel the need to share emotions
that could set us free
from a choice we once made
in our own darkest days.....

Several times I upset you baby.
Several times I did wrong,
'cause several times we just lost it baby
Wandering through our insecurities.
Wandering through our insecurities...

A slight relief,
as time will be healing
our tormented souls.
And I believe
that shattered feelings
confused us both.
In a labyrinth of time
we're following fragile lines.

Several times I upset you baby.
Several times I did wrong,
'cause several times we just lost it baby
Wandering through our insecurities.
Wandering through our insecurities...

What should we do with our feelings?
Can we rely on a love we believe in?
Can we just try to say what we mean
and take it from there?
